Resolution IX: To facilitate genuine research work at the State Archives, the Commission resolves to recommend to the State Governments to dispense with the scrutiny of excerpts taken by research scholars from all 'open' records.

Orissa: The resolution has been accepted and the scrutiny of excerpts taken by the research scholars from all 'open' records is now not necessary.

Sikkim: As the State Archives has been recently started and is being organised, the resolution is still under consideration of the Government.

Resolution XIII: The Commission resolves to recommend to the State Governments that the records of the National Movement, especially from 1885-1947, in the custody of the offices of the Home Department and other Offices/ Departments and quasi-Government Offices may be transferred to the State Archives and thrown open for research where this has not been done already.

Karnataka: The Government have been requested to consider the question of transferring the records relating to Freedom Movement for preservation.

West Bengal: All the non-confidential papers upto 1947, relating to the National Movement are thrown open to research scholars and all the confidential papers upto 1945 relating to National Movement have also been transferred from Home Political Department to this Archives and are thrown open to the researchers.

Sikkim: As the State Archives has been recently started and is being organised, the resolution is still under consideration of the Government.